

CITA – Foundation

Duration: 4 Days

Description

This 4 day training provides an introduction to the tools, information, skills and terminology required to succeed as a professional architect.

This course is designed to give you and your team all of the tools you need to lift architecture from a 'documentation' process to a true business capability.

Delegates will learn

- Automate key business processes
- Align communication across primary business units
- Identify internal and external business drivers
- Analyze business structures and segments
- Prepare for investment prioritization
- Map frameworks to an organization's maturity level
- Manage an engagement model
- Create a stakeholder communication strategy
- Value and architecture

Outline

Pre-Work Review

- Foundation Pillars Review

Engagement Model & Architecture Practice

- Architecture Process & the Architect's
- Engagement Model
- Architecture Process

Project Selection

- Reviewing the Business Case (Business Model Canvas)
- Validate the Numbers

- Create the Business Case
- Calculate Value
- Prioritize/Select Projects

Create Architecture

- Analyze Architecture Requirements
- General Architecture
- Product Specific Architecture
- Views, Viewpoints & Perspectives

Deliver Architecture

- Stakeholder Communication
- Modify & Update Artifacts
- Manage Delivery

Manage Architecture

- Reviewing and Analyzing Value Across Projects
- Setting Goals for the Team
- Updating Architect's Engagement Model
- Collecting and Communicating Architectural Value