

COBIT 5 Foundation

Duration: 2 Days

Description

The main purpose of the training is to introduce the participants to the COBIT processes and to explain the requirements for the processes. COBIT 5 provides a comprehensive framework that assists organizations achieve their IT governance and management objectives. This training consists of the basic information necessary to create a roadmap on how to create the most ideal added value from Information Technologies by creating an optimum balance between the strategic goals, risks and resources of the institutions.

Delegates will learn how to

- Apply COBIT 5 to assess the effectiveness of various processes
- Evaluate the differences between governance and management
- Investigate the implementation pain points and triggers
- Assess people, skills, and competencies for successful completion of all activities

Who Should Attend

Employees responsible for establishing, operating and managing COBIT processes in their organization

Outline

Introduction and Basics

- Introduction and Basics

Why COBIT?

- IT Governance and Management Issues
- Basic Challenges of Using IT
- Introduction to IT Governance

Framework and Principles

- COBIT 5 Framework

- COBIT 5 Principles

Meeting Stakeholder Needs

- Aligning Stakeholder Needs
- COBIT 5 Targets Step
- Application Guide

COBIT 5: Enablers

- Those that make possible the IT Governance
- Processes
- Principles, Policies and Frameworks
- Institutional Structures
- People, Skills and Competencies
- Culture, Ethical Rules and Behavior
- Services, Infrastructure and Applications
- Information

Enabling COBIT 5 Processes

- Process Components
- Those that Make Possible - Processes

Governance and Management

- Governance Areas
- Administrative Areas

COBIT 5 Process Competence Assessments

- Why Proficiency Assessments?
- New ISO / IEC 15504 Process Competence Assessment Approach

Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites for this course.