

Cyber Intelligence

Duration: 2 Days · Training format: Virtual Classroom / Online

Description

To ensure that necessary precautions are taken by identifying the information that hackers who will target your organization networks and systems can gather about you, your organization and its personnel before them.

Delegates will learn

- Introduction to Cyber Intelligence and Hacking
- Internet
- Research Tools
- Advanced Search Engine Usage

Who should attend

Network and system administrators, SOME members, researchers, anyone who wants to be ready for threats over the Internet.

Outline

Introduction to Cyber Intelligence and Hacking

- Hackers and their activities
- Changing face of cyber intelligence
- Significant events that have changed as a result of the use of cyber intelligence

Internet

- Points where the internet is technically weak
- activities carried out on the internet
- traces that can be found on the internet

Research Tools

- Tools that can be used to research online
- tools that need to be set up for cyber intelligence

- cyber intelligence bookmarks/useful sites

Advanced Search Engine Usage

- Information from search engines
- advanced search techniques with Google
- hidden functions of Yandex and Bing search engines

Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites